DAILY TRANSCRIPT ACTIVITIES

January 5 - Three Salems

Fill-in-the-Blank Summary:

Salem wasn't one unified community. There was Salem _____, the prosperous port city. Salem _____ was the agricultural land to the west. Salem _____ was the small farming settlement that wanted independence. In 1666, Salem Farms residents petitioned for their own _____ but Salem Town refused. The General Court finally allowed Salem Village to have a minister in _____.

Why this matters:

---

---

January 6 - Samuel Parris Controversy

Pause and Reflect:

After learning about the October 10, 1689 vote giving Parris the parsonage, pause and answer:

The vote was possibly illegal because only one objection was recorded, while we know more people opposed the measure, suggesting not all villagers were informed. Why would giving the minister ownership of the parsonage and land create lasting controversy?

---

---

---

Critical Fact:

From March 30, 1690 to July 23, 1693 (over 3 years), how many men joined Samuel Parris's church? _____

What message were the men of Salem Village sending?

---

---

---

January 7 - Religion in Massachusetts

Salem Witch Trials Daily is presented by The Thing About Salem and The Thing About Witch Hunts

Pause and Reflect:

After the discussion of forced toleration under the 1691 charter, pause and answer:

Puritans had to tolerate Anglicans, Baptists, and Quakers (whom they had previously persecuted and even executed). How would this forced toleration feel like a threat to their identity and their "city on a hill"?

---

---

---

Key Distinction:

What was the difference between demon possession and bewitchment? Why did that difference matter?

---

---

---

---

January 8 - Myths

Annotation Activity:

In your notes or transcript, mark each myth with an X and write the truth next to it.

List 5 myths debunked this week:

1.

---
2.

---
3.

---
4.

---
5.

---

Which myth surprised you most to learn was false?

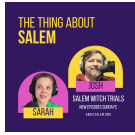

---

---

---

January 9 - Witches and the Diabolical Pact

Pause and Reflect:

Salem Witch Trials Daily is presented by The Thing About Salem and The Thing About Witch Hunts

After learning what colonists believed witches could do, pause and answer:

If everyone believed witches could send their specters to harm people from a distance, how would that make it nearly impossible to prove your innocence?

---

---

---

---

January 10 - Warfare

Fill-in-the-Blank Summary:

King Philip's War (1675-1678) was the deadliest war per capita in U.S. history. About _____ colonists died and _____ Native Americans were killed. The Massachusetts economy didn't fully recover until the _____ century. King William's War destroyed most of northern New England's _____ settlements, driving refugees south to _____ County.

Why this matters:

---

---

---

January 11 - Massachusetts Economy

Pause and Reflect:

After learning about the Little Ice Age, war debt, and inflation, pause and answer:

*How does economic collapse sever the bond of trust between people and their government?
What happens to a community when that trust breaks?*

---

---

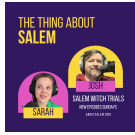

---

The Poverty Trap:

Describe what happened to Dorothy Good:

WEEKLY CHALLENGES

Salem Witch Trials Daily is presented by The Thing About Salem and The Thing About Witch Hunts

Challenge 1: Predict What Happens Next

Based on what you learned about Salem Village's divisions, Samuel Parris's unpopularity, the economic crisis, and war trauma, predict what happens when accusations start.

Consider: Who gets accused? Who believes the accusations? How do existing divisions get weaponized?

Your prediction:

---

---

---

---

---

Challenge 2: Citation Exercise

Claim: "Salem Village was deeply divided before any witch accusations began."

Your Task: Find supporting evidence in this week's transcripts. Cite the specific day (January 5-11) and quote or paraphrase the evidence.

Evidence 1:

Date: _____

Evidence:

---

---

Evidence 2:

Date: _____

Evidence:

---

Evidence 3:

Date: _____

Evidence:

Challenge 3: Character Journal

You are a Salem Village resident in early 1692.

You either support or oppose Samuel Parris (choose one). The village is fractured. Families aren't paying his salary. The committee won't collect taxes for him. You know about the wars, the economic collapse, the religious tensions. You attend (or refuse to attend) his church.

Write 5-7 sentences from your perspective: What do you think of Parris? What do you think about the state of the village? Are you worried? Angry? Hopeful?

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

Challenge 4: Share Your Learning

Many people believe myths about the Salem Witch Trials (ergot, hysteria, The Crucible's version). Take what you learned this week and share it.

Check the method(s) you used:

- ☐ Explained a myth vs. reality to a friend or family member
- ☐ Posted about misconceptions on social media
- ☐ Discussed in a book club or community group
- ☐ Created content correcting myths
- ☐ Connected Salem's divisions to modern community fractures

What did you share? How did people respond?

---

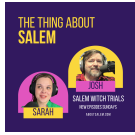

---

---

---

DISCUSSION REFLECTION

Salem Witch Trials Daily is presented by The Thing About Salem and The Thing About Witch Hunts

After reading this week's blog, respond to the discussion question:

How do the divisions in Salem Village (pro-Parris vs. anti-Parris, town vs. village, wealthy vs. poor) compare to divisions in communities today? What happens when a community is this fractured and then faces a crisis?

Think about: How do existing tensions get weaponized when people are scared? Do we still turn on neighbors when institutions fail us?

Your thoughts:
